Program Name: Women Development Cell Orientation Program

Venue: Dnyandeep College, auditorium

Organized by: Women Development Cell (WDC)

Program Host: Ms. Aishwarya Kapadi, Assistant Professor and Head of WDC

Program Overview

The Women Development Cell (WDC) at Dnyandeep College organized an orientation program aimed at introducing new female students to the cell's objectives, activities, and support mechanisms. The session was hosted by Ms. Aishwarya Kapadi, who provided comprehensive insights into the WDC's role within the college.

Key Highlights

- Introduction to WDC: Ms. Kapadi outlined the mission of the WDC, emphasizing its commitment to empowering female students through various initiatives.
- Activities and Events: The WDC organizes a range of activities, including competitions, programs, events, counselling sessions, problem-solving workshops, and inspirational lectures, all designed to foster personal and professional growth among female students.
- 'Sakhi Box' Initiative: An introduction was provided to the 'Sakhi Box,' a complaint and suggestion box installed in the girls' common room. This initiative encourages students to voice their concerns or suggestions confidentially, ensuring their issues are addressed promptly.
- Girls' Common Room Guidelines: Students were informed about the rules and instructions pertaining to the girls' common room, promoting a respectful and safe environment for all users.

Conclusion

The orientation program successfully acquainted new female students with the WDC's objectives and resources. Ms. Aishwarya's informative session highlighted the cell's dedication to creating a supportive and empowering atmosphere for women at Dnyandeep College.
